News was received here yesterday of the total destruction of the home of Mrs. J. D. Rose by fire in Henderson, N. C. She is a daughter of Mrs. J. H. Abbitt of this place.

Mr. Floyd Nowlin died at the home of his father some time during Saturday night. He was an apileptic and it is supposed he died of epilepsy. He was 24 years of age and had been afflicted all his life. His remains were interred at the home of Mr. Len Mitchell near here.

Mrs. C. A. Abbitt died at her home in Victoria last Saturday in the 69th year of her age. The deceased suffered a stroke of paralysis some time ago, from which she never recovered. She was born and reared in this county, where she is well-known and highly esteemed and was a member of that prominent family of LeGrand. She is survived by her husband and a large family of grown children, and was a sister of Mrs. C. W. Hancock of this town and Mrs. W. H. Haycock of Washington, D. C. Her remains were brought here and interment was made in Liberty Cemetery Monday morning in the presence of a large assemblage of friends.

"We only Bought Rat Poison Twice," writes Jesse Smith, N. J.

"I threw the first kind away; couldn't be bothered mixing it with meat, cheese. Then I tried Rat-Snap. SAY, that's the stuff! It comes in cakes, all ready to use. And it sure does kill rats." 35c, 65c, $1.25.

"Follow the Market" is our motto for this year.

If our price on any article is out of line tell us.

It was impossible to keep our prices up to market conditions when goods were advancing, so now it is impossible to be informed of each decline as it takes place.

It is our purpose, however, to give our customers the benefit of any new price that is out, and to purchase good, clean, substantial and sell it to our customers at an honest profit.

Colds & Headache

"For years we have used Black-Draught in our family, and I have never found any medicine that could take its place," writes Mr. H. A. Stacy, of Bradyville, Tenn. Mr. Stacy, who is a Rutherford County farmer, recommends Black-Draught as a medicine that should be kept in every household for use in the prompt treatment of many little ills to prevent them from developing into serious troubles.

THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

"It touches the liver and does the work," Mr. Stacy declared. "It is one of the best medicines I ever saw for a cold and headache. I don't know what we would do in our family if it wasn't for Black-Draught. It has saved us many dollars . . . I don't see how any family can hardly go without it. I know it is a reliable and splendid medicine to keep in the house. I recommend Black-Draught highly and am never without it."
